lick Scheme of a Fiorida Hailroad Com pany Who the Town Lols Away. Washington, Ang. 12. — Assistant Librarian Scudder, of the National Musenm, has discovered a neat real estate operation in Florida land, which he describes as follows: "A short time ago received by mail a deed to a lot in a town in Florida from a railroad company there, with a letter telling me that if I wanted to accept the propme that it I wanted to accept the prop-erty free I could do so by recording the deed. For that purpose I sent $1.25 to the recorder with tho deed, and now I own the jot. It jooked like a snap, but I found out that the company hired littern can't pawn goods, or if a clerk to record the deeds and them-selves received the fec. There are about ten lots of the size of the one they gave me to an acre, so they receive $12.50 per sero for the ground from the fees, and lly the end of the third act he you could buy all the land about that pisce you want for $1.25 per acre from the Government. I am not looking for snaps now. I want to pay hard eash and full price for whatever i get."

Col. Northup arrived home from New York this morning, where he attended an important meeting of the stockholders of the Chattaroi Railroad. He informed the News that C. P. Huntington has purchased the controlling stock in the road, and that the name will be "Ohio & Big Sandy Railroad." He stated that the only definite move of which he knows at present is that the road will be put in the best passible condition just as rapidly as is possible, and the interests along the line developed. As to an extension, Mr. Huntington has not as yet made known his intentions;

A famous woodsman once boasted that he could flud his way through a wilderness and return by the same path.

Being tested, he carried with him a alender thread, which should serve as a guide for the return trip. Heaching the end of his journey, he lay down to rest. While he rested came the genius of lodus try and breathed upon his throat and changed it to two shining ribbons of sieel. It was a railroad. Througs of people whirled past him is luxurious cars, and he read upon the train the mystic legend: "Wisconsin Cestral!"
